Obituary

EMMA GRACE HORTON, age 92, of 2872 State Route 96A, went with Jesus on January 6, 2018. Born in Harrington, Delaware on September 15, 1925, to the parents, Harvey and Ethel (Andrews) Bradley. At the age of 16 she married Edwin Brown. They had two sons, Rodney, who sadly died two weeks after birth and Roger Brown, the marriage ended after 6 years. Later, Emma fell in love with Thayer Swain, also of Delaware. They married, moved to Florida and bought undeveloped land in Pinellas Park. They worked hard to clear the land while working other jobs to save money. They built a home and grocery store. They did well, and were able to expand, building cottages to rent. They had four children, Carol, Jacob, Julia and Cindy. In 1957 Thayer died after a car accident. Life was had with four younger children (2 of them babies), but she was strong and coped. Two years later she met and married William Horton of Interlaken, NY, a farmer. She helped him farm, took care of the children and the household. After a few years, they built a store on the farm and Emma added another job to her very busy days, selling everything from furniture to antiques and oddities. Emma truly loved people and they loved her back. To her, everyone was a friend.

She is survived by three daughters, Carol (Chris) Uresti of Interlaken, Julia Billings and Cindy Swain both of Ithaca, and one son, Roger Brown of Mississippi, 11 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren, and 1 great-great granddaughter, and her beloved nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, William Horton; her sons, Rodney Brown and Jacob Swain, and a grandson, Seth Swain; her sisters, Irene and Sylvia Bradley, and Virginia Hackworth; and by two brothers, Wilber and Charles Bradley.

In accordance with Emma's wishes, there will be no services. Covert Funeral Home of Ovid has assisted the family with arrangements.

Obituary

FRANCIS J. "JOE" "MOOSE" MCDONALD JR., Joe McDonald, 88, entered into eternal peace on Jan 7th, 2018. As per Joe's request there will be no calling hours. A memorial service will be held at a later date at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions may be made to Ontario-Yates Hospice, 759 Pre-Emption Road, Geneva, NY 14456.

Joe was born March 7th, 1929 to Francis J. McDonald Sr and Margaret McGrane McDonald. He was a lifelong resident of the Ovid area, graduating from Ovid High School in 1947 and then joining the Air Force where he served until 1950.

Joe returned home and met his future wife, Beverly Kellogg, with whom he would enjoy a 66 year marriage. Joe was the proud father of 4 children and supported them with a 33 year career at Willard State Hospital. He also served on the Schuyler County Posse, Seneca County Sheriff Deputy, and served as Romulus Town Justice for many years.

Joe and Bev retired and traveled in their motorhome until they settled in Florida for 20 great years. They returned to the Geneva area for the last 10 years.

Joe was a life member of the VFW, American Legion, Elks, and South Seneca Sportsmans Club.

Joe is survived by his wife of 66 years, Beverly; his children, Randy (Gail) of Bastrop, TX, Scott (Patty) of Geneva, Babette (Ed) of Stoney Brook, Long Island, and Dana Bullivant of Seneca Castle; grandchildren, Joshua (Erika), Sean (Nateshia), Kevin (Jessica), Craig (Maggie), Macy Kisner, Kelley (Amadou), and Christopher; 8 great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews; brother and sister-in-law Ralph and Jean Poorman; sister-in-law Peggy Oltz; and his beloved dog, Baby.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents; sisters Mary, Margaret and Patricia; brothers Hugh and Robert; and sister-in-law Dorothy Bullivant.

Special Thanks to the professionals at Garnsey Rehab, Ontario-Yates Hospice, and to his angels Melissa Spearman and Jodi Hennessey.

Arrangements are being handled by Covert Funeral Home in Ovid.

Obituary

L. RICHARD FOXX— January 8, 2018 - Life was good, but I must move on to the next phase.

Born 1/22/1941, Post-Great Depression, the eldest of three to Lawrence Victor and Audrey Irene (Slater) Foxx in rural Upstate NY. Raised "old school", pretty much free of constraints in a care-free, Protestant religious manner. Spent school years at Ovid Central, where he served as Class President in both Junior and Senior year, ultimately receiving a coveted Empire State Regents scholarship. Lettered in basketball, football, band, and chorus. He also found time to be a paperboy, worked at Kenyon Greenhouse, and at Willard State Hospital in the kitchen and on the wards. After graduating, he went off to college at Clarkson, Hobart & William Smith, and at Empire State College in Cornell. James Garbarino tutored him in Math and Social Work. Unexpectedly worked at and retired from Willard and Elmira Psychiatric Hospital, working as safety officer (Fire/Police), Social Work, Rehab Counselor, and retiring as a Family Care Coordinator who oversaw his coveted team of nurses, social work assistants, and support staff who provided homes and supervision to close to 100 private homes with over 400 residents.

In 1960 he married his sweetheart from school, Shirley Anne (Miller Cool), and the love of his life. They had two children, Richard Jay and Kim Marie (Andy Herrala) and six grandchildren; Courtney (Grant McAuslan), Michael, Alex, Thomas, John, and Danielle who passed away in infancy. They also helped raise a nephew, Nathan (Vivian), who was like a second son. Family was always first and foremost in his mind.

Shirley and Richard built their first house in Willard, NY where they raised their family. After their children went off to college they had their second home built on the shores of Cayuga Lake where they enjoyed family, grandkids and lake activities after retiring early on the close of Willard Psychiatric Center. They enjoyed summers at the cottage on the lake and winters in Florida and traveling before finally purchasing their third house in Ormond Beach, FL (becoming FL residents for obvious reasons).

In addition to family, Richard enjoyed cruising, timesharing, boating, hunting, fishing, gold, Broadway Shows, summer theatre at the Merry Go Round Playhouse, music, cooking, gardening (flowers), crosswords and Sudoku, all sports, and clam eating at Lodi and Ovid.

Richard served as Board Member of the GHS Federal Credit Union, Seneca Country OFA & Senior Center, OFC in various positions. He was the past President of the Ovid/Willard Lions Club, a lifetime member of the South Seneca Sportsman Club and the Seneca Falls Elks Lodge #992, where he was the longtime chair of the "Hoop Shoot" and "Soccer Shoot Out"

It's been a great life if you don't weaken, optimistic and positive thinking go a long way. The "ironies of life" and above all pay cash. See you on the other side family, friends, and others.

Survivors include all noted above brother, Peter (Danielle); sister, Sally (Ron); numerous nieces and nephews; cousins; and countless friends.

A special note to my large extended family of parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins on both the Foxx and Slater sides who were such a large positive influence in both childhood and adulthood for both Shirley and I who have predeceased us.

A Memorial Service will be held this summer at a time to be announced. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Richard H. Keenan Funeral Home. More information can be seen at www.keenanfuneralhomes.com.
