Obituary

MILLICENT ROBINSON TUBBS of Trumansburg passed away peacefully Sept 7, 2021, at home with family. She was born April 2, 1928, in Guilderland, NY and was a cheerleader and valedictorian of her 20-member class at Altamont HS. She graduated from the first class of SUNY at Albany, and married Howard in 1953. Ten years later they moved to Camden, NY, where they opened a pharmacy and started raising their two daughters. After too many winters in the snow belt, they moved to Trumansburg and bought Holton's Pharmacy, now Kinney. Milli handled bookkeeping and the gift section, and generally kept things running on track. She loved to travel. After retirement, she and Howard visited all 50 states, and Milli went on to many countries in Europe, as well as Australia and New Zealand. Winters were spent on the Gulf Coast, and in Phoenix and Santa Cruz, CA, where she became a beach lover. Milli was the original Match.com: twice she introduced friends who wound up happily married for life. For several years she led the Gemm Shop and the T-burg Chamber of Commerce, she volunteered at the hospital and her church for decades, taught Sunday School, and hosted 2 exchange students. She was constantly knitting, and produced over 1000 items for others: prayer shawls, baby booties and blankets, hats, mittens, sweaters, afghans, and a long time ago, argyle socks for her husband. Milli was one of thousands of direct descendants of John Robinson, pastor of the Pilgrims.

Milli is survived by two daughters, Sue Crawford of Freeville and Nancy Tubbs of Trumansburg, a granddaughter, Carolyn Crawford of Lansing, a sister Marilyn (Bernard) Neadle, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Howard P. Tubbs, her sister Marjorie (Carl) McClarty, her parents Donald and Gertrude, and her son-in-law Steven Crawford.

A celebration of her life will take place at a later date at First Presbyterian Church of Ulysses. Donations may be made to the First Presbyterian Church of Ulysses, Box 597, Trumansburg, NY 14886. Arrangements have been entrusted to Ness-Sibley Funeral Home, Trumansburg, 607-387-8151.

WANTED DEAD OR ALIVE: Riding, Push Mowers, Farm Equipment, Tractors, Junk Vehicles, Etc. 607-294-0051.

SCHOOL TAX COLLECTION FOR 2021-22 SCHOOL YEAR

The district has subscribed to Tax Collection services at Tompkins-Seneca-Tioga (TST) BOCES since July 2021.

All 2021-22 school tax bills will be mailed directly to taxpayers' mailing address on file with county real property offices. Taxpayers who have an escrow account with a mortgage company or bank will receive their tax bills for informational purposes only. Mortgage companies and banks will receive tax information directly from the Tax Collector. No actions need to be taken by taxpayers who have escrow accounts.

Taxpayers who own multiple properties in the district will receive a tax bill for each property separately since bills are no longer sorted manually by mailing address.

Mail in payments are no longer accepted at the JP Morgan Chase lock box. Taxpayers should follow instructions on the tax bills for payment information. You may also make payments at Community Bank located at 7193 Main St., Ovid, NY. All school tax related questions should be directed to the Tax Collector at:

Julie Kephart, Tax Collector
Phone: (607)257-1555 x1042
E-mail: sscsdtax@tstboces.org

Taxpayers can request a receipt by checking the "Check for receipt" box on the payment stub. If requested, receipts will be mailed to taxpayers within a month after payment is received. Taxpayers can view updated payment status on www.taxlookup.net once payment is posted to the taxpayer's account, which usually happens within 4 days of receipt of check payment.

New this year is the "E-check" payment option. Taxpayers can input checking account information and make a payment through www.taxlookup.net. A service fee of $1.50 will be charged. However, payment will be posted to the account immediately and taxpayers can print out a receipt for their records in real time.

Please note, the credit card service fee is displayed on taxlookup.net. Once the "Continue to Payment" button is clicked, the MuniPay website will appear. Click the "Pay with E-Check" tab on the right side of the screen, and the service fee will change to $1.50.

Please note the collection period for the 2021-22 school year will be over a 2 month period instead of a 3 month period. The penalty free period is September 1, 2021 to October 1, 2021, and the 2% penalty period is October 2, 2021 to November 1, 2021. Any payments postmarked after November 1, 2021 will be returned to the taxpayer and their taxes will be assessed, with penalties, to their Town taxes.

Tax bills and receipts since 2011 school year can be found on line at www.taxlookup.net. 2021-22 school tax bills will be available on line on September 1, 2021.

A STUDY OF BITING DOGS: A FEW SURPRISES!

WE ARE NOT ACCEPTING NEW CLIENTS OR ADMITTING FORMER CLIENTS WHO HAVE NOT BEEN IN TO THE PRACTICE IN THE LAST THREE YEARS.

During office hours, visitors to my clinic can usually be assure of seeing two things. The first is that I will scurrying around in what appears to be a constant state of chaos, especially around the one o'clock and five o'clock hours. Secondly, a client can be fairly sure of seeing on the left rear corner of my desk a large, often disheveled, stack of what look like magazines. These are, however, mostly peer-reviewed, continuing education, and medical science journals. They sit there to constantly remind me (whenever I get a free moment) to read them. Besides attending required continuing education classes, professional seminars, and consulting with colleagues, reading these magazines are how we vets keep up-to-date with the HUGE flow of new information that needs to be put into our already over-crowded brains.

As I said, most of them are peer reviewed, thick with scientific and medical studies, and are not light reading. One journal in the pile, however, provides a little relief from the drudgery: it's called DVM Magazine. The magazine is kind of like the National Enquirer of veterinary journals. In it are interesting columnists, whiney stories of how hard it is to go to vet school or to be in private practice, and of how our human counterparts make so much more money than us vets. I usually just skim the first few pages. But because it is moderately readable, it is one of Theresa's favorite magazines. And it was she who brought to my attention the following study.

A group in Colorado called The Coalition For Living Safely With Dogs (www.livingsafelywithdogs.org) did a study of why dogs bite and, most interesting to me, which dogs bite the most. Although it limited its study to dogs in Colorado, I think it pretty much states what I've always felt to be pretty close to the way it is. There were a couple of surprises. It must be stated before I begin that any dog for any reason can bite. It's just a fact of dog ownership. However, regular visitors to my practice know that there are three breeds of dogs that I am particularly cautious of: dachshunds, Dalmatians, and chow chows. I need to be very clear on this. I love dachshunds. My beloved clients who own dachshunds know I love dachshunds. Some of my best patients are dachshunds. But the worst bites - five that I recall - I've ever gotten have been from dachshunds. My only problem with Dalmatians is that if there is gonna be a dog who has bitten a child badly (mutilate is a better word), most often it will be a Dalmatian. And with regards to chows, owners who bring this breed into my office know how I feel. I tell them that I've almost had my left arm ripped-off by a rottweiler; I've been backed into the corner of my exam room and almost had my nose chewed-off by a German shepherd; and I've had to sew my left pointing finger back together from a bite by an American Eskimo; but these breeds you sort of expect to be often nasty. Chows, however, are just plain sinister. They're sneaky. They lull you into a false sense of comfort with their cute little beady eyes, and then they pounce at you like they literally want to kill you! There are a couple of exceptional chows (and my treasured clients who own them know who they are) but they are few and far between.

I can hear it out there now: "And so Doc, what about the usually profiled vicious breeds like German shepherds, Dobermans, and pitbulls?" My answer is, again, yes, these guys can be quite vicious, but you sort of expect it from these guys. Theresa and I love German Shepherds. Our last two personal dogs were shepherds. And with regards to doxies and pitbulls, I've never met a single one who I haven't liked. Sure, there are stories all the time about these breeds killing or mutilating people, but so have Labradors, golden retrievers, and Chihuahuas!

So much for what I think. The Colorado study (which is fifty-five pages long and can be downloaded from the web page mentioned above) has the following conclusions:

- 1.) Chihuahuas are the most likely dog to bite a veterinarian (I'm not too sure about this one.)
- 2.) Again, as it pertains to veterinarians, Lhaso Apsos delivered the most severe bites.
- 3.) Of the 188 breeds in the study, the top five involved in biting were: Labrador retrievers (somewhat of a surprise to me), pit bulls, German shepherds, Rottweilers, and chow-chows (no surprise here!)
- 4.) The top five for bites involving children: Labradors, pit bulls, German shepherds, smooth-coated Chihuahuas, and Rottweilers.
- 5.) And finally, with some much-welcomed vindication for all of the verbal abuse I've taken from owners over the years, the top five dogs for being the bearers of the worst injuries from biting: American Bulldogs (there aren't a lot of these guys around), Dalmatians!!!!!! (not a bit of surprise here!), standard dachshunds!!!!!! (but I still love these little guys), English bulldogs (somewhat of a surprise to me), and Lhaso apsos. Thanks again.

Obituary

ROBERT L. KELLY, with deepest sorrow, we announce that Robert L. Kelly, age 60 our beloved son, brother, family member and friend passed on Saturday, September 4, 2021, while in the hospital. Those who knew him, even just a little, lost a shining light in their lives. He is dearly missed by his loved ones, who celebrate the fact that he is at peace with his creator.

Rob will be lovingly remembered by his parents, Leon and Donalie (Rosa) Kelly, of Ovid; his siblings, Warren (Michelle) Kelly of Hudson Falls, NY, Colleen (Keith) Stannard and Diane Kelly, all of Ovid; his nephews, Jason Kelly, Daniel Kelly, and Jared Pratt; his niece, Leah Pratt; and numerous other family members, his church-family, and friends.

Bob graduated from South Seneca Central School in 1980 and went on to earn his bachelor's degree in computer engineering at the Rochester Institute of Technology. He later earned his master's degree from Johns Hopkins while working for the National Security Agency for 34 years, until his retirement in 2016.

He was one of the most generous, patient, spiritual & intelligent people we have ever known. We will miss him more than even he would have suspected. He was a kind and gentle soul, anyone who knew him was touched by his kindness, humor and mild temperament.

We will be having a "come as you are" gathering to remember Robert L Kelly. We will be gathering at the Ovid Union Cemetery at 2 pm on Sunday, September 26, 2021, for a brief graveside memorial and then heading to the Ovid Village Pavilion (behind the new firehouse). We will toast to Robert / Rob / Bob while we share memories, photos and food. Please join us.

Those feeling the need to bring something, bring non-perishable items for a food bank or donate at your local organization. Bob was deeply engaged to the Maryland Food Bank, donating time, funds & food items.

Obituary

ELIZABETH A. JENNER, of Trumansburg, NY, passed away peacefully on Saturday, September 11, after a life well lived at the age of 104 with her daughter by her side. Born on Groundhog's Day in Pompey, NY, to the late Richard and Mary Long, Liz had a zest for life.

Known by many as Liz, Grandma Jenner, and the matriarch on Whig Street, she enjoyed many years boating with her family on Cayuga Lake, attending family picnics at Taughannock Falls State Park, and being the resident card shark with her friends and family. She worked at JCPenney and Holton's Pharmacy. She loved being part of her local community, being a lifetime member of the American Legion Auxillary and Trumansburg Senior Citizens, and volunteering for the annual Senior Citizens Bazaar, and at the Gemm Shop.

Liz is survived by her daughter Margaret LaForty, son-in-law Terry Harvey; grandchildren Kimberly LaForty, Dawn (Ed) Trapp, Robert (Meredith) LaForty, Denise (Eric Kunze) Blass, Renee (Jeff) Matteson, Scott Millspaugh, Donnie (Stephanie) Jenner, Stephen (Leslie) LaForty, and Daryl Jenner; sixteen great grandchildren; five great-great grandchildren; several nephews and nieces; and longtime friend Lee Grunder. She is preceded in death by her husband Howard Jenner, daughter Mary Jenner Harvey, son William Jenner, daughter-in-law Jane Jenner, and siblings John Long, Don Long, Marie Reynolds, Kate Healy, Rose Ryan, Rich Long, and Paul Long.

We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to the caregivers of Hospicare of NY and FL for their unwavering support. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in Liz's memory to the Hospicare of your choice.

The family will be present to receive friends on Wednesday, September 22nd from 11:30am-12:30pm at Ness-Sibley Funeral Home 23 South Street, Trumansburg, followed by a mass at 1:00pm at Saint James Catholic Church, 17 Whig St, Trumansburg, graveside services to immediately follow.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Our odor control and landfill gas extraction crews continue to work diligently to maximize gas collection efficiency and reduce emissions for the production of renewable energy. This green energy is a domestic and renewable source of electricity and natural gas, and it reduces our reliance on fossil fuels.

In 2020 this work produced enough renewable electricity for over 18,000 homes—all of Seneca County.
