LA VERNE (TOOTSIE) GATCH
March 25th, 1941 - March 25th, 2018

I'm writing this poem for you on your birthday
In remembrance of my undying love for you.

I will write you this because that's what I do.
Writing words sweet and soft like I remember you.
My love for you is like no other.
Nor do I care to share my love with another.
You alone still fill my heart, while not in life,
but only in death did we part.
So, I think of these words while I still have life.
For you alone I am still in love with you, my wife.
I will always love you until I am no more.
And given the chance it will not end, that's for sure.
Happy birthday my wife, I love you.

Obituary

SAMANTHA WEBB, age 40, loving wife, mother, and sister was taken too early on March 20th, 2024 at Rochester General Hospital following a hard fought battle with cancer. She never gave up hope and fought until the very end.

Sam was very compassionate and loving. She was always willing to help in any way even to those that did not deserve her generosity. Sam was quick witted with a sense of humor that prompted her siblings to remind her she was "just like Dad". Those qualities gave her the ability to excel in customer service. Over the years she held various roles in the customer service and hospitality industries; however, her heart and passion was with Texas Roadhouse. She was a respected leader and a valuable team member with her fellow "Roadies". So much so, that as her sons became of age, they both joined her as Texas Roadhouse employees. She was very excited and proud to have been working beside them, guiding them as they learned the food service industry.

During their 20+ years of marriage, she and Billy raised 2 sons, both now teenagers, her boys were the primary focus in life. As a family they enjoyed vacations and nights out together. Sam enjoyed time with her siblings and their families, often on weekends, they could be found together enjoying the nice weather, at a cookout or bonfire. If the weather was bad outside, then everyone could be found around a table inside. Rarely ever was a weekend missed where everyone was not together. Many memories were made from the good times full of laughter, the odd conversations and the "Hey Girl" nights. The nieces and nephews all agree that Aunt Sam was their favorite aunt. They all have stories of their sleepovers with her enjoying ice cream and acting silly together. Aunt Sam was their "go to person" when Mom said no!

She is survived by her husband of more than 20 years, William "Billy" Webb, sons, Zachary and Jacob Webb and stepson, Bryan Webb; her mother, Ruth (Gary) Ennis her siblings, Pam (Robert Brown) McDonald, Norwood (Heidi) Burke Jr., Danielle Burke, Christopher Ennis and Leila Ennis, many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews. Sam was preceded in death by her grandparents, Freeman and Pauline Burke, Jack and Ann Biles and her father, Norwood Burke Sr.

The family will receive friends at Covert Funeral Home in Ovid from 12:00 to 2:00pm on Thursday, March 28th, 2024. Also, a Celebration of Life will be held at the Ovid VFW from 4:00 to 7:00pm the same day. In lieu of flowers, kindly consider a donation in Sam's memory to the Lipson Cancer Center at Clifton Springs Hospital.

For additional information, visit www.covertfuneralhome.com or call 607-869-3411.

11TH ANNUAL PENNSYLVANIA INFANTRY, GETTYSBURG AND A DOG NAME SALLIE

WE ARE NOT ACCEPTING NEW CLIENTS OR ADMITTING FORMER CLIENTS WHO HAVE NOT BEEN INTO THE PRACTICE IN THE LAST THREE YEARS!

While returning home from a recent 4th of July weekend R & R in Ocean City and a quick visit with my dear sister-in-law and her family in Frederick, Maryland, Theresa and I stopped to visit the hallowed ground at the Gettysburg Civil War battlefield. Because she is not as fascinated by the place as I am, let me put that another way: I stopped, and she came along for the ride. I had promised her that we'd only be researching five different spots on the battleground that I read about in my various studies of the engagement. One would be the spot where General Buford and his calvary held off the Southerners's advance on the first day of the battle. Another was to visit the place where General Reynolds was felled by a sharpshooter. The others were General Webb's statue at the Angle, the Irish Brigade's monument near the Wheatfield, and the 11th PA Infantry Regiment's monument on Oak Ridge. It was such a beautiful day and everything was so interesting, that our intended one hour quick stop turned into four hours.

Of the nearly 2,000 plaques, statues, and other memorials at the Gettysburg battleground, there are only two dogs portrayed, and of these two, only one, Sallie, was actually at the battle. She can be found on the back side of the 11th Pennsylvania's Monument on Oak Ridge. Very few people know she's there because even though the monument sits right next to the road, you have to get out of your car and walk around the statue of the soldier in order to see her. There you'll see her resting, watching over the field she had so long ago bravely defended.

The 11th Pennsylvania Infantry Regiment was formed during the first year of the Civil War in 1961 from residents of several Pennsylvania Counties. The unit would participate in nearly all of the big battles including Cedar Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville and, of course, Gettysburg. 1,890 men served with the unit during the four years of the war; only 340 lived to be discharged at war's end. During their first month of training, a lieutenant from the regiment was given a pug-nosed brindle bull terrier puppy by some grateful townspeople and in short order, she became the unit's mascot. They named her Sallie, after a local girl from the nearby town of West Chester. Sally drilled along with the soldiers, attended roll call, and during parade, would march with the regiment's colors. Although she was described to be of even temperament, she was known to hate three things: Rebels, Democrats, and women.

Her first battle was at Cedar Creek in 1862 where she remained on the frontline helping to guard the regimental flags. When concerned caretakers tried to get her to remain safely in the rear of the fighting, she doggedly (sorry, I couldn't help it) returned back to the front. She did likewise at Antietam, Fredericksburg, and Chancellorsville. On the first day of the Battle of Gettysburg, the 11th Pennsylvania's defensive position was overrun by the Confederates and all who were able had to retreat to the relative safety of Cemetery Ridge. In the rout, Sallie was no where to be found. When the battle was over two days later, the survivors of the regiment found her back on Oak Ridge. Hungry and nearly dying of thirst, she had steadfastly refused to abandon her fallen comrades, protecting them on their field of glory from looters and scavengers.

In 1964, Sallie would be badly wounded in the neck at the Battle of Spotsylvania, but would survive. However, in 1865, just months before the end of the war, while accompanying her fellow warriors in the first wave of an attack on the Confederate's position at the Battle of Hatcher's Run, she took a bullet to the head and died instantly. With great sadness in their hearts, and under unmerciful fire from the enemy, her compatriots buried her on the battlefield.

Because the writer of one of the articles that I used for researching this story did such a good job in his/her summation of the 11th Pennsylvania Regiment's achievements and their monument at Gettysburg, I shamelessly paraphrase what they wrote in their report: At the base of the statue is a bronze likeness of a little dog. It is Sallie ... keeping watch through all of eternity over the spirits of her boys, just as she did so many years ago during all of the battles they shared. A dog so loyal and full of love for her men that the regiment's survivors insisted she be remembered on "their" monument for all of time.

Obituary

A memorial service will be held for ALLEN RICHARD BAKER, who passed away on April 14, 2022 in Eustis Florida, after a long illness.

Allen was born on December 26, 1960 in Oneida, NY. He attended grade school and Jr. High at Stockbridge Valley Central School till the age of 15, when his family moved to Seneca Falls, and bought a dairy and poultry farm on Hoster Rd.

Allen attended Mynderse Academy for 2 years, while continuing to work with his Father learning about farming, crops, caring for animals, and building barns. (They had 186 head of Holstein Milkers, and 16 thousand Laying Hens!)

In 1984, Allen spread his wings to work for other farmers, broadening his knowledge.

Later on he moved to Boston, Massachusetts area and worked with a contractor, building equestrian barns.

In 1991, Allen moved to Hawaii for 2 years and managed a large landscaping company.

In 1993, he came back to Seneca Falls and started Baker Construction while living on Swaby St., and later moved to Gravel Road, Seneca Falls.

Friendly, happy go lucky and seriously professional, he built his business in Seneca, Wayne, Cayuga and Ontario Counties, finding customers who trusted his work, his mannerisms, and his talent! His trade mark was his great smile and his honesty.

In 2013, he moved to Florida to work with his brother who owned "M and B Steel", a fabrication business. Allen was put in charge of a Disney Project that Greg had just contracted to build, the New Avatar Ride.

He loved to fish and hunt deer and bears. He was an avid bow hunter as well.

He is survived by his wife Sharon, his two sons & daughter-in-laws, Derek & Michelle Baker of Seneca Falls, NY; Robert & Ashley Yeomans of Oswego, NY; 3 grandsons, Blake Baker, Miles & Jayce Yeomans; 1 granddaughter, Mia Yeomans. His parents Floyd (Stub) and Marjorie Baker of Waterloo, NY; his siblings, Penny Baker & Nate Paris of Waterloo, NY; Joanne & Karl Schessl of Waterloo, NY; Karla & Rick Graham of Locust Grove, VA; and Gregory Baker of Weirsdale, FL.

Family and friends are invited to attend the service at the United Methodist Church, 2 Chapel St., Seneca Falls, NY at 11am on April 13, 2024. Luncheon to follow. RSVP to Marjorie Baker at 315-878-6578 by April 6, 2024.

Obituary

ROBERT A. COLTON, 72, passed away peacefully on March 11, 2024 after a 14 month illness. In honoring Bob's wishes, there will be no calling hours.

Contributions in Bob's name can be made to the Jim Dooley Childcare Center at Geneva General Hospital.

Bob was born on October 18, 1951 to Kenneth and Annagene (Pierce) Colton in Sidney, NY. He grew up in Waterloo and graduated from Waterloo High School.

Bob worked several jobs in his younger years including, as a mechanic at D'Amico Chrysler and Geneva Ford. Once he became a father, he was very proud of his boys. He coached their Little League teams and was an assistant football coach in their high school years. In 1988 Bob was hired at Geneva General Hospital as a security officer. He worked his way up to become Security Manager and eventually Director of Security and Safety for all entities of Finger Lakes Health. Bob was very passionate about his job and retired after 30 years of service. During his tenure at Finger Lakes Health, he enjoyed playing Santa at Christmas time for the children at the daycare center and residents of the nursing home. Bob brought smiles and joy to both young and old. They loved him and that gave him much joy. He also worked private security at the Waterloo Outlet Mall and Seneca County Boat patrol. After his retirement, Bob wanted to stay busy, so he started driving a construction crew of his Amish friends at Peachey Builders.

Bob became severely ill in Jan 2023. He was diagnosed with acute gallstone pancreatitis, to which his body could not recover from. Bob spent the next 14 months in several healthcare facilities, eventually succumbing to liver failure.

He is survived by his sons Eric (Shai) Colton and Kenneth Colton, both of Waterloo; grandchildren Caitlyn, Tyler, Autumn and Connor Colton; sister Elizabeth (Paul) Singer; brothers Kevin (Cheryl) Colton and Ron (Terri) Colton; sisters-in-law Grace Colton and Edie Colton; several nieces and nephews. Bob is also survived by best friend of 35 years (and former spouse) Karen Laurenza and her son Michael Windle.

Beside his parents, he was pre-deceased by his brothers Kenneth, Larry and Edward Colton.

Bob liked to portray himself as a tough guy. He may have been a little rough around the edges, but the truth is he was a big soft guy. He would always help family and friends whenever he could and he was very generous. He lived his life like an angel with no halo and one wing in the fire. He made some mistakes along the way, but no person should be judged by their mistakes, but rather by the good they did.

Rest in Peace Bob.

Online condolences for the family may be sent to www.palmfh.com.

Thank You

to all those who called, sent cards, visited, brought food, attended the service or simply spoke kind words following the unexpected passing of my husband, Joe. To the Valois Logan Hector and Trumansburg Ambulance crews as well as the staff at CMC ER, thank you for your tireless efforts on Joe's behalf. To Alison at Ness-Sibley Funeral Home, you are a true gift to those you serve. Special thanks to my loving, devoted support team of Raymond Terry and Bruce and Kathy Terry. Always there, always knowing and meeting my needs before I know what they are myself. Your love and support will continue to be needed as I "find my footing" once again.

Joe was making farming plans for the coming season, thinking about retirement, and he died never having to give up his passion or lack of purpose. He was at peace with who he was and how he saw the world, giving him strength and tenacity, a mix that made him uniquely himself.

Thank you for allowing God to use each of you in such a wonderful and loving manner toward me. May He continue to bless and keep all of you.

Connie Ike

Presenting:

"Fossenvue" a staged reading by Chris Woodworth

Saturday, May 11 @ 2:00pm
Finger Lakes National Forest - Caywood Point (rain or shine)

Logistics: The staged reading will occur in front of the Queen's Castle (aka Fossenvue) which is located on the shore of Seneca Lake at Caywood Point. Access to the point by trail is a 1/3 mile hike on a gravelled path. Slopes exceed 20% and it is physically demanding. Please bring your own chair.

Alternative transportation (via pontoon boat) will be offered departing from Smith Memorial Park in the Town of Hector. Reservations must be made by April 26 for pontoon transport (limit of 18 people).

A donation to the Burdett Fire Department is requested and appreciated!

For several decades Geneva suffragists Elizabeth Smith Miller and Anne Fitzhugh Miller, and many of their friends gathered on the shore of Seneca Lake at a summer camp they called "Fossenvue." Swimming, singing, writing, and suffrage strategizing filled their days and nights at Caywood Point.

Inspired by research conducted at Historic Geneva and in the Library of Congress NAWSA digital collections, as well as site visits to "Queen's Castle," playwright Chris Woodworth weaves together past and present. The play imagines the early days of Fossenvue and raises difficult questions about the legacies of race and suffrage activism today. How do we reckon with the echoes and reverberations of the predominantly white women's suffrage movement in the present? How do we acknowledge the harms of the past without denying or whitewashing? How do we grapple with these thorny questions while navigating the loving and tumultuous personal landscapes of families? At its core, Fossenvue is a play about mothers and daughters.

To make a reservation, please contact the Hector Ranger District by calling 607-546-4470.

Lead Renovator Training Opportunity in Schuyler County Earn your EPA RRP-Initial Certification! FREE!

The Lead Renovator program is 8 contact hours with classroom and hands-on activities and an examination. Typical trainees are homeowners/property owners/managers, building trades, code enforcement staff, contractors, and their employees, or those who would like to use the certification to obtain work in the construction industry. These trainings are difficult to come by without traveling quite a distance to Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Albany, or NYC and are being offered at no cost right here in Schuyler County!

Thursday, April 25, 2024
8:00 AM – 5:00 PM
SCHUYLER COUNTY HUMAN SERVICES COMPLEX
323 Owego Street
Montour Falls, NY 14865

Registration Required - Limited slots available
Call Now! This class will fill up fast!

For more information or to register for this FREE training call Public Health at:
(607) 535-8151 or email:
bheichel@co.schuyler.ny.us

About the Instructor: Art C. Wheaton is the Director of Labor Studies, Cornell University ILR School Buffalo Co-Lab. Art is a member of the Buffalo/Erie County Lead Task Force. Art has taught EPA RRP initial and renewal classes for more than 12 years.

* Typically, this training could cost $300 or more.
* Bring your lunch for a 1-hour lunch break.
* Light refreshments provided!

This program is sponsored by Cornell University and hosted by the:
