MUSHERS, A DOG NAMED BALTO, AND THE LAST GREAT RACE ON EARTH: THE 2024 IDITAROD

WE ARE NOT ACCEPTING NEW CLIENTS OR ADMITTING FORMER CLIENTS WHO HAVE NOT BEEN INTO THE PRACTICE IN THE LAST THREE YEARS!

The world-famous Iditarod is an epic sled dog race that captures the spirit of adventure, endurance, and the indomitable bond between humans and their canine companions every year. This grueling event takes place in the rugged wilderness of Alaska, covering just over 1000 miles in distance between the city of Anchorage and the village of Nome. It pits man and woman and their dogs against raw mother nature in all of her splendid majesty and brutal, unforgiving fury; it is considered by many to be truly “The Last Great Race on Earth.”

Although the Iditarod Trail had been used by Native American peoples for hundreds of years before the arrival of Russian settlers in the 1800s, the present-day race actually commemorates a relatively recent event. In early 1925, a deadly diphtheria outbreak occurred in the northern Bering Sea coastal city of Nome. On February 2nd of that year, a musher named Gunnar Kaasen and his team of huskies, guided by his lead dog, Balto, became the first of several lifesaving missions to deliver diphtheria antitoxin to the disease-stricken city. (As a point of interest, in Central Park in the great city of New York, there is a bronze statue of Balto inscribed as follows (from Wikipedia): “Dedicated to the indomitable spirit of the sled dogs that relayed antitoxin six hundred miles over rough ice, across treacherous waters, through Arctic blizzards from Nenana to the relief of a stricken Nome in the winter of 1925. Endurance—fidelity—intelligence.”

The first official Iditarod Trail Race was run in 1973. Prior to this, sled dog racing had a long and popular history within the state. One of the more popular of these races was called the All-Alaska Sweepstakes. It was at this event in 1910 that saw the introduction of the first Siberian husky dog to Alaska. Before this, the primary breed used was the Alaskan malamute.

This year's race had 29 teams of 12 - 16 dogs and their sled driver (called mushers.) The trail is divided into 24 checkpoints, and the race is usually completed in 9 to 12 days. The winner was Dallas Seavey of Talkeetna, Alaska. His race time was 9 days, 2 hours, 16 minutes, and 8 seconds. The 2024 race was Mr. Seavey's record-setting sixth win. In 2017, Seavey also accomplished the fastest time for completing the race. That time was 8 days, 3 hours, 40 minutes, and 13 seconds, set in 2017. This year's race, sadly, was marred by the death of 3 dogs. Also, Mr. Seavey and his dogs were attacked by a moose. The musher had to shoot the moose, but not before the animal seriously wounded one of the Huskies. Although he required two surgeries, the dog did live.

The word “Huskie” takes its name from the derogatory term “Eskie,” which refers to all Native Eskimo peoples living all over the Arctic. The word “Siberian” refers to the land of Siberia, presently Northeastern Russia. Some archeologists believe that the predecessors of the modern Siberian husky breed helped the early settlers of our continent cross the land bridge formed between North America and Asia during the last ice age.

Finally, and this is something I had to look up on Wikipedia, the term mushing refers to any form of transport powered by dogs. It is believed that the term has its origin in the French word “marche,” which means to go or to run. A person who directs this form of transport is a “musher.”

Obituary

DEWEY R. ALBRO, longtime resident of Prospect Street, died peacefully at Robert Packer Hospital in Sayre on Wednesday, May 1, 2024, subsequent to complications of a rare muscular disease.

Dewey was born in Seneca Falls on July 29, 1942, a son of the late Frank R. and Augusta (nee Howes) Albro. He was a graduate of Ovid High School and began his working career at Willard Psychiatric Center. He later worked at Cornell University and then the NYSDOT. Dewey became the Village Superintendent for the Village of Interlaken, from which he retired in 1997. Dewey was actively involved in Boy Scouts while his 3 sons were growing up. He was an avid hunter and fisherman all his life and was a member of the Interlaken Sportsmen's Club in addition to being a member of the Interlaken Fire Department. Following his retirement, he and his wife wintered in Parker, Arizona for many years.

Dewey is survived by his wife of 61 years; Vonnice and his sons; Eric (Tina) of Interlaken, Kristopher (Susie) of Interlaken and Douglas of Seneca Falls, his grandchildren; Cory, Jacob, Erika and Sarah, and great grandchildren, Forrest, Octavia and Julia. He was preceded in death by his sister, Shirley Bajdas.

No services are scheduled at Dewey's instruction, and the family graciously requests their privacy at this time. In lieu of flowers, kindly consider a donation in his memory to: Interlaken Fire Department, PO Box 274, Interlaken, NY 14847
