ST. MONACELLA'S LAMBS:

THE STORY OF ST. MELLANGELL

WE ARE NOT ACCEPTING NEW CLIENTS

OR ADMITTING FORMER CLIENTS WHO

HAVE NOT BEEN INTO THE PRACTICE

IN THE LAST THREE YEARS.

A lot of treasured readers know that St. Francis of Assis was the Patron Saint of animals, especially birds. A few may know that St. Gertrude of Nivelles

(a city in Belgium) is the Patron Saint of cats. And I've written in this humble column in the past about the Patron Saint of dogs, St. Roch of Montpellier (France.)

And that Saint Anne is patroness of horseback riders.

But I'll bet few to none have heard of the Patron Saint of hares!

Her name was St. Melangell (in Latin, St. Monacella) of the ancient Welsh Kingdom of Powys. Although scholars are divided over her exact birth date, the early

British Church historian Venerable Bede gives the date as late in the 6th century as the most probable. Legend says St. Monacella was an Irish princess who fled her family to escape an arranged marriage. Making her way to Wales, she settled in the Kingdom of Powys (modern-day Pennant Valley), where she lived for fifteen years, dedicating her life to God as a consecrated virgin.

In 604 AD, a local Welsh prince named Brochwel Ysgithrog, while out hunting, followed one of his dogs who were hot on the scent of a rabbit. There, he found Monacella, who he later would describe as a "virgin beautiful in appearance." He also saw the hare his dogs had been chasing lying safely under the hem of her dress. Despite many attempts, he could not get his hounds to retrieve the rabbit.

The prince then asked her what she was doing all by herself out in the woods. After learning of Monacella's life story, Brochwel bestowed upon her the land upon which she now stood and offered eternal sanctuary to both her and the inhabitants and creatures (especially rabbis) of the region. For the next 37 years, St. Monacella resided in the same location, establishing and leading a community of nuns. It is said that the hares and other wild animals exhibited docile behavior around the future saint. This peaceful coexistence prompted belief in miracles, which were attributed to her presence.

As proof of St. Monacella's enduring legacy, to this very day, in the Pennant Valley of Wales, hares/rabbits are still nicknamed "St Monacella's lambs." Likewise, the saint's presence is so strong that no one even hunts the critters anymore. Shortly after her death, a church and shrine were built over her tomb. This original church building was turned into a school building during the Reformation, and Monacella's tomb was dismantled and taken away. In 1958, the church was rebuilt and her tomb was reassembled over her burial site.

RUTH A. MCCHEYNE, age 84, passed away, surrounded by her family on Friday, June 14th, 2024, at Oak Hill Hospital in Brooksville, FL, after a brief illness.

The family will receive friends for a celebration of life from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. on Friday, July 26, 2024, at the Ovid American Legion, 2083 W Seneca Street, Ovid, NY 14521.

She was born in Romulus, NY on November 1, 1939, a daughter of the late Arthur K. and Pauline M. (Maynard) Woods. She graduated from Ovid Central School in 1957 and began working at Willard Psychiatric Center as a Mental Hygiene Therapy Aide, retiring in 1995.

Ruth had a passion for gardening, crafting, crocheting, and cooking, filling her home with handmade treasures and delicious meals – she was famous for her macaroni salad. Her playful spirit and love for goofing around brought joy and laughter to everyone around her. Ruth and Stanley cherished the home they built together in New York and their winter retreat in Spring Hill, Florida, where they created many wonderful memories over their 40 years together. In 2014, Ruth made Florida her full-time residence, embracing the warm weather.

Ruth had a big heart and was renowned for her loving and generous nature, always ready to lend a helping hand or offer a kind word. Her creative talents and warm, fun-loving spirit will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

Ruth leaves behind three daughters: Karen (Bob) Fairclough of Michigantown, Ind., Lisa (John) Jelliff of Odessa, NY, and Megan (Pat) Reel of Russiaville, Ind.; two stepsons, Steven (Joanne) McCheyne of Geneva, and Stanley McCheyne Jr.; two stepdaughters, Cindy (Ralph) Sibley of Lodi, NY, and Brenda (Ken Hohwald) Register of Ovid, NY; eight grandchildren, Garrett (Brittini) Fairclough, Braxton Fairclough, Hunter Karius, Kelly Karius, Harlee Reel, Jordan (Jenelle) McCheyne, Melisande (Matthew) Ploutz, and Paul Register; five great-granddaughters and two great-grandsons; her sister, Roberta Xavier of Spring Hill, Fla.; two sisters-in-law, Agnes (Lou) Brinkerhoff of Wakarusa, Ind., and Jean Simmons of Lodi, NY; and her loyal companion, her cat, Toby. Ruth was predeceased by her husband, the love of her life and soulmate, the late Stanley O. McCheyne Sr. and by her sister-in-law, Emily “Fib” Wilson.

In lieu of flowers, please consider honoring Ruth’s memory with an act of kindness.

Obituary

KENNETH LELAND DRESSER, JR., 80, of Lodi, passed away on June 28, 2024, at Rochester General Hospital, after an extended illness.

Ken was born on March 14, 1944, in Geneva, N.Y., the firstborn son of Kenneth and Esther (Cooley) Dresser. He graduated from Interlaken Central High School in 1962 and married Connie (Champion) Dresser on September 28, 1963.

After graduation he worked for Sylvania Electric and farmed part-time until becoming a full-time welder/ machinist for the Seneca Army Depot. Ken also served as Lodi Town Constable and as a deputy Sheriff for Seneca County. When the Seneca Army Depot ultimately closed, Ken decided to work fulltime for himself, as the owner/ operator of Dresser Construction, which he continued for many years.

Blessed with an inventive mind, Ken also enjoyed woodworking, building model planes, metal fabrication and fixing anything that he found broken. He also played the guitar and was an avid fisherman. Ken was a ‘jack of all trades’, but unlike the adage, he was truly a master of all.

Those closest to him likely learned firsthand that he was also a dedicated prankster and had a mischievous streak. Ken loved to share the stories of his past shenanigans.

He was predeceased by his parents, Kenneth and Esther Dresser, and brothers, Gary and David Dresser.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Connie, daughter Sheryl (Thomas) Cruger, and sons Kenneth III (Kristina), Christopher (Tracy) and Jeremiah (Amanda) Dresser; his grandchildren Holly, Kayla, Coleton, Jaylen, Hailey, Hayden, Derek, Natalie, McKenzie and great grandson, Amaris. He is also survived by siblings Susan (Roger) Austin, Mark (Linda) Dresser, Cindy (Ross) Woodard, Carol and Jeffrey Dresser, sisters-in law, Viola Coney and Phyllis Champion, as well as many beloved nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Life has been planned for August 10, 2024, at the home of Kenneth and Kristina Dresser, 8699 State Route 89, Interlaken, with hours for the public from 1 pm to 3 pm.

In lieu of flowers, those wishing may consider memorial contributions to be made in his memory to the Lodi Volunteer Fire Department or to South Seneca Ambulance.

ELEVATING the ordinary.

Membership eligibility required. Subject to credit approval. Must be 18 years of age or older to apply. Introductory APR of 6.95% ends 180 days after the date of account opening on purchases and balance transfers for all credit card accounts excluding Visa® Secured opened 6/1/24 through 8/31/24. Purchases made during the 180 days after account opening will qualify for an interest rate of 6.95% until the 180 day introductory period is up. After that, your regular APR will be applied to any unpaid purchases and balances posted during the introductory period. For example, if your credit card account is opened on 6/2/24, the 6.95% introductory rate will be valid on purchases and balance transfers through 11/29/24. You can view your billing cycle date and regular APR on your credit card statement. As of 6/1/24, APRs range from 11.75% to 18.00% and are subject to change. Your APR will depend on your creditworthiness and will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate. Limited to members in good standing.
