In Memory of

La Verne (Tootsie) Eleanor Wilcox Gatch

03/25/1941 - 03/03/2018

Year 8.

Tootsie, the most painful day of my life was the last day of yours. I never got to say goodbye. I never knew just how painful it is to lose someone, until death took you away from me. Some losses don't heal; they just haunt you quietly. Every day after you left there has been a battle I never asked for. I still wake reaching for what is gone, still trying to breathe through the silence that feels louder than my heartbeat. Some days I am not living, just surviving the ache, you left behind. Sometimes I can't hold back my tears when I remember the day your heart stopped. I miss you with every day I live, I remember you with every tear I cry. And with my whole heart I will honor and love you until we are together again.

Obituary

INEZ M. DARLING, affectionately known as Inez, passed away peacefully and unexpectedly at her residence on February 24, 2026, at the age of 92. Born on June 12, 1933, in Standing Stone, Pennsylvania, Inez was a beloved figure in her community and a dedicated family member.

A proud graduate of Towanda High School in 1952, Inez had a vibrant spirit and a hard-working nature. She met her future husband, Clifford, while he was employed by her aunt and uncle, and together they built a life filled with love and purpose on the Lawara Farm in Interlaken, where they resided for 35 years. Their strong bond endured for over 55 years until Clifford's death in 2009.

Inez was not just a devoted wife but also a meticulous homemaker and housekeeper, always ensuring her home was a welcoming haven. Her high energy and feisty personality were evident in all aspects of her life. As an artisan baker, she delighted in sharing her creations with friends, neighbors, and the special people in her life, making her baked goods a cherished staple in her community. Inez also took joy in decorating her home for every holiday, a testament to her festive spirit and love for celebration.

In addition to her role as a mother and grandmother, Inez was a supportive member and volunteer of the Interlaken Reformed Church for decades, where she built many lasting friendships. She was known for her loyalty and was clearly viewed as a loyal friend by those who had the pleasure of knowing her.

Inez's proudest accomplishments lay within her family. She dearly loved her husband, her children, and cherished every moment spent with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Surviving her are her son, Rick Darling of Trumansburg; daughter, Patricia Langley of Romulus; a grandson, Aaron (Kaela Orego) Langley; a granddaughter, Courtney (James) Maphis; and great-grandchildren, Walker, Maverick, Alaric Richmond, and Kingston Langley, Rileigh and Arianna Maphis; and by her sister, Shirley Boyes of Trumansburg, her brother, Gary (Mary) Lewis of Horseheads, along with many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Amy in 1963, her husband, Clifford in 2009, a son in law, Jim Langley in 2024 and by her sister, Erma Bishop.

Inez will be remembered for her vibrant spirit, unwavering dedication to her family, and the joy she brought to those around her. She leaves behind a legacy of love, warmth, and cherished memories that will forever be held close in the hearts of her loved ones.

The family will receive friends from 11:00am to Noon on Monday, March 2, 2026 at Interlaken Reformed Church, a funeral service will then follow at Noon, officiated by Pastor Sulia Mason. Interment will be held at Lake View Cemetery in Interlaken privately by the family. In lieu of flowers, kindly consider a donation in Inez memory, to Interlaken Reformed Church, PO Box 335, Interlaken, NY 14847.

Obituary

MARK RICHARD WELCH of Trumansburg passed away unexpectedly at Cayuga Medical Center on Thursday, February 19, 2026 at the age of 75. Mark's life was a rich tapestry woven from his deep love for family, his enduring friendships, and a kid-like spirit that embraced adventure. Respected as a devoted father and grandfather, Mark cherished time spent with loved ones, teaching the joys of life and creating memories that will last for generations.

Mark was born in Ithaca on June 22, 1950, a son of the late Edward and Tosca (Gori) Welch. Growing up in Trumansburg, Mark graduated from Charles O. Dickerson High School in the Class of 1968. He embarked on a career with the US Forest Service, followed by his work at Wagner Lumber. Mark also owned and operated his own logging business, Welch Forest Products and most recently, he served as the manager for the Hector Cooperative Grazing Association.

Mark's hands held the magic to create—he built his own home, carved intricate ducks, and could build and fix anything. A true jack of all trades, he delighted in outdoor adventures, whether it was fishing on the lake, boating under the sun, or gathering around bonfires. His commitment to the outdoors extended to coaching baseball and trap shooting, as he inspired young athletes at all levels, from Little League to Babe Ruth, and even recently founded the Trumansburg High School Trap Team.

His passion for music added another layer to his colorful personality finding joy in the melodies of artists such as CCR, Bob Seger, and Lynyrd Skynyrd. A true movie buff, Mark loved all types of movies from the classics to the not-so-classics.

Mark's home was a sanctuary filled with laughter and lively conversations, where dinner time was sacred and always an occasion for joyous connection. He was always up for the next adventure, leading his children and grandchildren on sledding trips, skiing escapades, and ice skating frolics, never hesitating to share the simple pleasures of life outdoors.

Mark is survived by his wife, Terry Boyd Welch; four children, Chelsea (AJ) LeViere, Garrett (Lori) Welch, Brett Welch, and Ashleigh (Stephen) Catafamo; eleven grandchildren, Joey, Brock, Tristan, Jack, Marin, Dane, Hannah, Jackson, Gavin, and Robert; siblings, Linda Langley, David (Rhoda) Welch, and Laura (Bill) Hager; sisters in law, Elena Welch and Kimberly deCoudres; and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, Mark was preceded in death by his brother, Steven Welch; granddaughter, Audrey Catafamo; and nephew, Camden Rundell.

The family will be present to receive friends from 4:00 to 7:00pm on Thursday, February 26, 2026 at Ness-Sibley Funeral Home, 23 South Street, Trumansburg. A Funeral Service will be held at 1:00pm on Friday, February 27, 2026 at the Trumansburg United Methodist Church, 80 East Main Street, Trumansburg.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations in Mark's memory be directed to the Trumansburg High School Trap Team, c/o TF&GC, PO Box 70, Trumansburg, NY 14886.

Obituary

With heavy hearts and deep gratitude for a life beautifully lived, we announce the passing of RHEA V. JONES, who entered this world on December 21 in Rochester, born to Charles Kelsey and Virginia Goodell. She peacefully departed on February 21, 2026, at Arnot-Ogden Medical Center, surrounded by the love she so freely gave to others throughout her life.

She leaves behind the love of her life, her devoted husband of nearly 55 years, Ralph Jones, whose partnership was a testament to enduring love and friendship. She is also survived by her cherished sisters, Marylois Schott and Bonnie Pierce; her loving children, Jennifer (George) Muzzy, Jason (Melissa) Jones, and Jeffery Jones; and her treasured grandchildren, Mikayla Fuller, Kelsey Muzzy, Marlea Jones, Elisabeth Rosbaugh-Cornish, Kazandra Jones, Mariisa Arnold, and Damyan Arnold. Each of them was a light in her life, and she poured boundless pride and affection into every moment spent with them. Rhea was preceded in death by her beloved parents and her dear brothers: Ford "Skip", Lyle, Jim, and Charles Kelsey. Though she mourned their loss deeply, she carried their memory with strength and grace.

A longtime resident of Ovid, Rhea built a life rooted in community, compassion, and connection. She formed lasting friendships and touched countless lives with her warmth and sincerity. She dedicated many years of service to Willard Psychiatric Center until its closing in 1995 and then continued her career with the Finger Lakes DDSO until her retirement. Her work reflected her heart — steadfast, caring, and deeply committed to helping others.

Rhea was known for her gentle spirit and her unwavering kindness. She spoke well of everyone she met and offered help wherever it was needed. Whether volunteering at the Edith B. Ford Memorial Library or delivering food pantry supplies to neighbors in need, she quietly and faithfully served her community. She was a friend to all and a mother and grandmother not only to her own family, but to many who were blessed to know her.

Rhea's absence leaves an immeasurable void — not only within her family, but throughout the community she loved so dearly. Her legacy of compassion, generosity, and unconditional love will live on in the countless lives she touched.

She will be forever missed, forever cherished, and forever remembered.

The family will receive friends at Covert Funeral Home on Saturday, February 28, 2026, from Noon to 2:00pm, a memorial service will then follow at 2:00pm officiated by Pastor Rob Mellgard of Ovid Federated Church. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly asks that donations be made to support the local community she cared so deeply about, continuing her spirit of giving and neighborly love.
