Obituary

TODD A. TILLINGHAST, age 59, passed away suddenly on April 3, 2026, in Lake Wales, Florida. Born on August 20, 1966, in Ithaca, Todd lived a life marked by his culinary talents, passion for gambling, and warm-hearted nature that endeared him to many.

Throughout his life, Todd transformed his exceptional cooking skills from a cherished hobby into a profession. He worked as a chef at various periods, delighting those around him with his artistry in the kitchen.

Todd also nurtured a keen passion for the art of gambling, which also became an aspect of his working life. In recent years, he was employed as a warehouseman for Target.

When Todd moved to Hudson Falls, he quickly embraced the community, forming deep and lasting friendships with locals who appreciated his friendly spirit and generous nature. His ability to connect with others made him a valued presence wherever he went. Also known for his love of the Miami Dolphins—always sharing sideline banter with his nephew, Douglas, and his quest for knowledge of history and its preservation. A day well spent could include visiting a museum, a zoo or an aquarium.

Todd's sudden passing occurred while he was preparing dinner and engaged in conversation over the phone, an event that deeply shocked and saddened all who knew him. His vibrant energy and kindness left a lasting impression, and his absence will be profoundly felt.

He is survived by his father, John "Jack" Tillinghast, and Jack's wife, Sally, of Ovid. Todd also leaves behind his sister, Joli Chamberlain, and her husband, Jeff, of Balston Spa. He shared a very close relationship with his niece Emily Wilson and her husband, Arch and a nephew Doug Chamberlain: all of whom held a special place in his heart. Todd is further survived by a very large extended family who cherish his memory, along with his many friends - relationships that were built on solid foundation. Todd was preceded in death by his mother, Marianne Gleason in 2025.

As friends and family remember Todd A. Tillinghast, they celebrate a man whose talents, warmth, and community spirit enriched the lives of so many. He will be remembered with great affection and respect. Details of a memorial celebration are incomplete at this time and will be announced by his family at a future date.

Don't Suffer in Silence—How Urogynecologists Can Help Treat Persistent Pelvic Floor Problems

Urogynecologists specialize in conditions that affect the most private parts of a woman's body, addressing issues related to incontinence, prolapse, and sexual dysfunction. These specialists, who combine expertise in urology and gynecology, offer advanced, targeted care.

Dr. Muhammad Aslam is a double board-certified specialist in Obstetrics and Gynecology and Urogynecology and Reconstructive Pelvic Surgery.

"When I was in medical school, I was really attracted to obstetrics and gynecology because of the nice combination of medicine and surgery," said Dr. Muhammad Aslam, Urogynecologist at Arnot Health, a Member of Centralus Health.

When it comes to discussing issues about bodily functions, many people share the same sentiment; the taboo topic is too embarrassing to discuss.

"A lot of people don't talk about it. One in four women will have surgery for pelvic organ prolapse. That's how prevalent it is."

While common, leakage caused by pelvic floor or other urinary dysfunction is a treatable medical condition, not a normal part of life. Dr. Aslam offers a variety of treatment options to patients, starting with more conservative methods, like physical therapy, and ending with surgery when necessary.

"With minimally invasive robotic surgery, you have your procedure, you go home faster, get back to work sooner, and the outcomes are great."

Weakened or injured pelvic floor muscles can cause problems with how these organs work. When this happens, don't let these problems disrupt your life—see a urogynecologist.

"You do not have to suffer in silence. All of these problems are treatable. I will help you; I will treat you, and we'll work together to make your life so much better."

Arnot Health and Cayuga Health, members of Centralus Health, offer compassionate, comprehensive women's health services.

Arnot Health offers urogynecological care and additional women's health services at 600 Roe Avenue, Elmira; 7571 State Route 54, Bath; 100 John Roemmelt Drive, Horseheads; 123 Conhocton Street, Corning, and 600 Fitch Street, Suite 102, Elmira.

Cayuga Health offers obstetrics, gynecological, and therapy-based care at 310 Taughannock Boulevard, Suite 1C, Ithaca; 10 Brentwood Drive, Suite A, Ithaca; 1129 Commons Avenue, Cortland; 20 Arrowwood Drive, Ithaca, and 401 Cayuga Park Lane, Ithaca.

Waterloo Library & Historical Society

Jim Patsos named Welles Award Recipient from the Waterloo Library and Historical Society

Waterloo, N.Y. — The Waterloo Library & Historical Society has announced James (Jim) Patsos, Jr. as the recipient of the 2026 Henry C. Welles Award. The annual event will serve to kick off the Celebrate Commemorate Memorial Day weekend. We invite the public to help honor them at the award ceremony starting at 6:30 PM on May 22, 2026 in the Library & Historical Society's Fatzinger Hall. The Henry C. Welles Award honors those individuals who "Embody the character and commitment of the founder of Memorial Day toward the betterment of our community". Like Mr. Welles, Jim is the quiet, show up, get things done type of guy who never expects recognition.

Jim moved to Waterloo at 18 and attended Cornell University. After graduation he returned to take over his family farm. He and his late wife Deb were happily married for 54 years and ran Beltavern Farm in Junius for decades, raising their 5 children in Waterloo, Alicia, Michael, Amy, Brian and Matthew. He has since retired as a farmer but, being still is just not what Jim does, he can be seen out and about helping to transport Amish around the community for jobs and various activities, on top of volunteering for numerous organizations.

Jim says he is "Honored, happy and humbled to be chosen as the Henry C. Welles recipient..." His wife Deb was also extremely involved in the community, but often where she volunteered, so did Jim. He "...dedicates this award to her."

Jim's overwhelming sense of service, warm-heartedness, humility and humor is prevalent when speaking to him. He is often cracking a joke or brushing off how much he has actually done, it took some prodding and digging to get him to admit to his long term dedication to Waterloo. Jim was a 4H leader for 35 years, a Waterloo Little League Board Member and umpire for 8 years, part of the Seneca County Farm Bureau for 6 years, serving as President for 2, a Church Elder for the Church of Latter Day Saints for 10 along with a member of the Seneca County Bereavement Support group for 30 years! His service doesn't stop there, proving his commitment to the children of Waterloo, he has been a member of the Seneca County Community Christmas Project for 25 years and backbone for Trevor's backpack project for 13 years. The list would be never ending if every time Jim showed up to lend a hand it was documented. He was awarded the Waterloo Little League for his service and also a Seneca County Honorary Angel.

From Coreen Lowry, Board President of the Waterloo Library & Historical Society, "It is a privilege to be able to recognize someone so deserving yet as humble as Jim. He consistently shows up to serve his community without expectation. It is an honor to present him with the Henry C. Welles Award"

THE OLDE COUNTRY STORE & MORE Est. 1849

A Once-in-a-Generation Opportunity: The Olde Country Store and More — established 1849 — Is For Sale

After a Decade of Love and Hard Work, Owners Jenny and Denise Wells Are Returning Home to Germany — and Offering Their Thriving Turnkey Business and Historic 1873 Building to the Right Buyer

NORTH COHOCTON, N.Y. — When Jenny and Denise Wells left their hometown in Germany in 2015, they brought with them a dream, a work ethic, and a love of community. They found all three reflected back at them in a long-dormant country store at the crossroads of the roads to Naples, Wayland, and Cohocton — and on the Fourth of July 2015, they threw open the doors and got to work. Now, after a decade of building something truly special, the Wells family is ready to return to Germany and is offering The Olde Country Store and More for sale.

The property they chose is no ordinary address. A store has stood at this crossroads since 1849, and the historical building that houses the shop today dates back to 1873. After sitting closed from 2008 to 2015, it was Jenny and Denise who restored its purpose — starting entirely from scratch and rebuilding the business with care, grit, and genuine affection for their adopted community. In the ten years since, they have made it thrive.

The decision to sell was not an easy one. After a decade in New York, the pull of home has grown too strong to ignore, and Jenny and Denise have made the heartfelt decision to return to their hometown in Germany. They are not closing a chapter so much as passing the torch — and they are determined to find a buyer who will love this store as much as they have.

Time is of the essence. The store will continue operating as normal through August 31, 2026. A buyer who acts before then will step into a fully turnkey operation — building, inventory, equipment, fixtures, and a loyal customer base all included. If no buyer is secured by September 1st, a Going Out of Business sale will begin, with all stock, equipment and building sold off individually. Once that process starts, the opportunity to purchase this as a turnkey business is gone for good.

"We came to the US with nothing but hope, and this community gave us so much more than we ever expected," said Jenny and Denise Wells. "We are homesick for Germany, and the time has come for us to go home — but leaving this store and the people who have supported us is genuinely hard. We hope to find someone who will walk through these doors and feel what we felt in 2015: that this place is something worth fighting for."

Interested buyers are encouraged to contact Jenny and Denise Wells directly for pricing details, financials, and to arrange a personal visit. The store is open and welcoming customers Wed-Sun. The turnkey window closes August 31st — this is a rare chance to own a living piece of American history at a beloved community crossroads.

Turnkey Sale Includes:

- Historic 1873 building at the crossroads of Naples, Wayland & Cohocton
- Property with continuous store presence since 1849
- All inventory and stock
- All equipment and fixtures
- Established customer base and deep community goodwill
- 10 years of rebuilt operational history under current ownership (est. July 4, 2015)
- 12+K followers Facebook page
- Vendor and supplier lists
- 1-2 weeks help from current owners for smooth transition
- Fully licensed kitchen

Turnkey purchase opportunity available through August 31, 2026.

Going Out of Business Sale begins Sept. 1, 2026.
