STUFF YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW THAT CAN KILL
(OR SEVERELY SICKEN) YOUR DOG OR CAT

WE ARE NOT ACCEPTING NEW CLIENTS OR ADMITTING FORMER CLIENTS WHO HAVE NOT BEEN INTO THE PRACTICE IN THE LAST THREE YEARS!

(Reprint) Over the past 18 or so years I've been here in Trumansburg doing the best I can to try and save the lives of cats and dogs, I've rambled on and on and on about the potential dangers of giving and treating our beloved pets human foods and medicines. But treasured clients come and go, and just when it seems that I've gotten the message across—and when it's too late to do anything about it—I get that Sunday night phone call: “Doc, my dog ate a bag of Mini Hershey Bars yesterday. My mother-in-law says that chocolate isn't good for dogs. Will Fido be OK?” (Not possible to say.) Or: “Doc, my mother-in-law says to give my dog some Motrin/Tylenol/Aleve/Advil for her limping. I did so for the last three days and his limping has gone away. But now he's vomiting and refuses to eat. Do you think it's might be the medicine?” (Yes, and it's very likely that without serious/expensive medical attention that he will die.) [Before going any further, I'd like to just apologize for picking on mothers-in-law in the above examples. But if the truth were to be told, this loving ladies are the primary culprits of a lot of advice, both life-saving and life-taking! And I'd also like to go on record and say that I lucked out and had the world's best mother-in-law (who's now in Heaven) that a son-in-law could ever have hoped for.] And so, with Halloween, Thanksgiving, Hanukkah, Christmas, Kwanza, etc. all on the schedule for the next couple of months, here are a couple (or many) reminders. But before proceeding further, and if you remember nothing else I or any other veterinarian tells you, this should be it: DOGS AND CATS ARE NOT FURRY FOUR-LEGGED PEOPLE!!! CHOCOLATE: Of all of the emergency calls I get from pet owners during all hours of the day and night, one of the most common involves dogs (mostly) and their intentional or accidental eating of chocolate. From brownies to chocolate fudge cake mixes, from Hershey's Kisses to imported Belgian chocolate-covered cherries, everyone wants to know, “Doc, can chocolate kill my dog?” The answer is, “Depending on how much they ate, yes, yes, yes. It can!” A quick and approximate way I calculate whether drastic action should be taken is that a potentially lethal dose is five ounces of pure baker's chocolate in order to kill a 45 pound dog. More or less, this work out to: -For candy bar type milk chocolate: one ounce per one pound of a dog's body weight. -For semisweet chocolate: one ounce per three pounds of body weight. -For baker's chocolate: one ounce per nine pounds of body weight. GRAPES AND RAISINS: The fact that grapes and, especially, raisins can be toxic to our dogs and cats is quite surprising to many people. Their first response is usually that they've been feeding the occasional grape or raisin for years to their pets and have had no trouble. And, of course, my answer to this is that even though our pets should, at least in theory, only eat dog or cat food, the occasional food treat (in very small quantities) mostly will do no harm. But now that you know better, and from now on: NEVER FEED ANY GRAPES OR RAISINS TO YOUR PETS AGAIN! All grapes, both with seeds or seedless, white or purple, organic or not, have been found to be harmful. The amounts that are potentially lethal are: -Three and a half ounces of grapes per ten pounds of dog. -A half an ounce of raisins, per 10 pounds of dog.! As few as seven raisins can kill a dog. ALCOHOL POISONING: Pet owners and their guests usually forget to take into consideration that dogs are significantly lighter in body weight than humans. The twelve-ounce glass of spiked eggnog that causes 140-pound Aunt Debbie to dance naked on the dining room table can potentially kill 40-pound Clyde the basset hound. A second problem with intoxication (again using the example of Aunt Debbie) is that of inhibiting the dog's inhibitions. I can almost hear everyone shouting: “Huh? Doc, what are you saying?” When you lower this inhibition by alcohol or other drugs, your “nice” doggie could potentially turn into a biting and snarling little (or big) land-shark. When this happens, you and your family and guests could get seriously hurt. 7. ALL OF THE OTHER STUFF MOST PEOPLE DON'T THINK ABOUT: The list of items that can harm or kill your pet is infinite. But with an owner's common sense and constant vigilance, the holiday season can be one of joy and excitement for all. Although far from complete, here are a few more things to pay attention to: Christmas candles and scented oils, onions, bread dough, seasonal medications, antifreeze, deicing products, batteries, tylenol, macadamia nuts, and many, many more. Thank you!

LYNNE STOUT BURSIC, a caring and curious person to everyone she met, passed away on September 8, 2026 at Hospeace House in Naples, NY. Her death was peaceful, with family members and friends at her side. She is survived by her husband Paul; daughter Meryl; sister Cynthia Slater (Rob); brother Richard Stout (Alicia); and mother Lorraine Stout (Richard, predeceased).

Lynne moved to the Finger Lakes from her native North Carolina in 1997 with Paul and Meryl. The family left behind Mulberry Silks and Fine Fabrics, a store founded in 1983 and still thriving in the hands of former, dedicated employees. Lynne was the creative force behind Mulberry. The store became a destination center for fabric lovers and a source of great inspiration for many artists in the region.

Once here in the Trumansburg area, Lynne turned to community service as well as further exploring fabric arts. She served on the Board of Ulysses Public Library and ran their semi-annual book sales, effectively using her retail experience to expand this fundraising activity. She then turned to Tompkins Learning Partners to serve as as a volunteer tutor. She found great pleasure and fulfillment in the assignments teaching English as a second language and was immensely grateful for the opportunity to assist in the successes her students achieved.

A lifelong learner, Lynne dedicated time cultivating many skills and interests, including reading and memorizing poetry, playing the piano, listening to and sharing new classical music, crafting from and curating her fabric collections, finding the perfect birthday or holiday present for loved ones, learning new words and languages, and appreciating all forms of art in all media. She was also active in the kitchen and the garden, with these intertwined interests resulting in new recipes and many dishes consisting of edible forageables.

Most important to Lynne was the beauty of the natural world and our collective place within it. To her, all things followed from this principle, including the importance of kindness and how we should treat one another in support of beauty in and appreciation of this world. As a family, we encourage you to memorialize your love of Lynne by donating in her name to the Hospeace House in Naples, NY, an amazing organization that helped make her final journey a beautiful one. <https://hospeacehouse.org/donate/>

NOLT'S TIRE SERVICE

3022 State Route 96 • Waterloo, NY 13165

315-539-2764

†Terms and conditions: Limit (1) online or mail-in rebate offer per qualifying tire purchase of four (4) tires in a single transaction from 9/1/2026 to 11/30/2026. Offer valid only for U.S. residents who are individual consumers with mailing addresses in the U.S. and U.S. territories. Amount of the rebate depends on the qualifying tires purchased and the availability of qualifying new tires at the time of purchase. If your vehicle requires six tires, tire rebates are available on a prorated basis for the two additional tires. The prorated tire rebate amount per additional tire is 50% of the tire rebate amount listed above. The minimum purchase is a set of four tires, and the maximum purchase is six tires per invoice. Offer not valid on previous purchases. Cannot be combined with other Cooper tire rebate offers. Properly submitted and verified claims will be provided with the rebate (as described below) in U.S. dollars in the form of a Cooper Mastercard Prepaid Card to be mailed to the address provided on this official form. This Card is issued by The Bancorp Bank pursuant to license by Mastercard International Incorporated. Limit four (4) rebates per household per promotion. If this completed form must be postmarked or submitted online no later than 12/31/2026. Allow 6 to 8 weeks for Mastercard Prepaid Card delivery. Cooper reserves the right to substitute a check of equal value in lieu of a Mastercard Prepaid Card at its discretion. Fraudulent submissions will not be honored and may be prosecuted. Cooper/Goodyear is not responsible for noncomplying rebate submissions or for lost, late, illegible, postage-due or undeliverable mail and any noncomplying rebate submissions will not be honored, acknowledged or returned. By responding to this offer, you will be disclosing all the information requested on this form to a fulfillment company affiliated with Cooper/Goodyear for processing the rebate. The fulfillment company uses this information to process and fulfill your rebate claim. To view the Goodyear privacy policy, go to <https://www.goodyear.com/en-US/terms-conditions-privacy-policy>. Mastercard is a registered trademark, and the circles design is a trademark of Mastercard International Incorporated. No cash refunds or recurring payments. Prepaid Card can be used anywhere Mastercard cards are accepted. Prepaid Card valid for up to 12 months; unused funds will be forfeited after the valid thru date. Failure to activate or use your Card will void the offer and relieve The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of any further obligation. Lost, unused or unused balances on Prepaid Cards will not be replaced after the expiration date. Void where taxed, restricted or prohibited by law. All decisions made by Goodyear/Cooper (or its authorized representatives) relating to the validity of any submissions are final and binding. This promotion is subject to all federal, state, and local laws and regulations. Prepaid Card terms and conditions apply. Additional terms and conditions apply. THE SENECA COUNTY AREA SHOPPER IS PRIMARILY IN THE BUSINESS OF PUBLISHING ADVERTISING AND COMMUNITY INFORMATION. However, from time to time we are asked to publish ads expressing political views. As a beneficiary of the great tradition of the First Amendment, we encourage the expression of opinion and therefore do not discriminate based on the content of those opinions. Neither do we adopt or endorse these opinions. On occasion, these opinions may be in questionable taste or may even provoke offense. As long time residents and business owners, we regret when our publication causes hard feelings among our neighbors. However, we take our First Amendment responsibilities seriously and we will continue to provide a forum for the expression of opinion. We encourage our clients to maintain civil discourse and respect for differing views especially when discussing issues of particular sensitivity. We hope that our friends and customers can respect our position.
